SPEED-THE-PLOW

by DAVID MAMET

93rd Season
Winter 2011

A very warm welcome to Summit Playhouse! We love greeting new guests as well as old; that is to say repeat visitors! Every year we are faced with the decision: "What plays shall we put on this year?" I think by now we have produced almost every comedy known to man, every mystery with more than two actors in it, and every Neil Simon.

For this season we wanted to mix the old 1932 The Late Christopher Bean with the new, and edgy for us, 1988 David Mamet's Speed-The-Plow. We feel we have a sure winner in Closer Than Ever, a musical with songs that will make you laugh, or touch your heart. Direction will be by Susan Speidel, Bill Houpt will be our Musical Director. We hope you will notice there are two rows of brand-new chairs in the theater. We'd love to know your opinion of them. The others are over 60 yrs old! The plaques mounted on the backs of the old chairs have all been carefully removed and will be hung in a place of honor here at The Playhouse.

Something else is new and very exciting at the Playhouse this year! Ground UP Productions, a professional not-for-profit theater company from NYC, will be hosted by us right here in Summit! They are a fabulous group getting rave reviews from the NY critics, both for their revivals and world premieres. The New York Times says Ground UP is "Good natured, down-home fun" while Variety called them "A hootin' good time," and The New Yorker raved, "Compelling drama, deliriously entertaining." Their next show will be The Importance of Being Earnest here at the theater in May 2011.

Summit Playhouse is happy to offer Ground UP a home for one show a year. The NYC professionals, in return, will help The Playhouse in all facets... From producing, designing and building sets (already in progress!), to sharing equipment and warehouse space, to creating an Educational Outreach Program, with a high school mentorship and master classes, covering such topics as The Art of the Audition, Stage Management, Aspects of Design, and Acting as a Business (to name a few). Master classes started this past December and will continue during The Importance of Being Earnest. We are thrilled to help them expand to Summit, and feel sure you will make them welcome, enjoying their productions as much as ours.

We would like to dedicate the production of Speed-The-Plow to Dieter Heil.

Robert Barwick (Bobby Gould) is stoked to make his debut with the Summit Playhouse. Many thanks to Trey for casting me and to my extremely talented cast mates.

This journey has been challenging and fantastic. After accepting Trey Compton's offer, I embarked on a "method" eating sushi diet to better prepare myself for the role of Jeremy Piven's Bobby Gould...at least that's what my family and friends think! Favorite roles include Tom MacKenzie in 7 Year Itch, Brian in Laughter on the 23rd Floor, Mike Connor in Philadelphia Story, Eddie Pirandello in Tennyson Anyone?, Julian Winston in Cactus Flower, and Stuart Framingham in Beyond Therapy. Barwick is also the announcer for various road-running races throughout the US. Much love to my daughters, Jillian and Kendra, my Mom and my IMDB maven, Melissa, who doesn't complain when I tell her the good news that I've been cast in yet another show!

Danielle Pennisi (Karen) is excited to make her debut at the Summit Playhouse! She was last seen onstage as Belle/Emily in A Christmas Carol with The Chatham Community Players. Past credits include Company (Jenny), Rent (Mrs. Cohen), Ragtime, The Mikado (Peep-Bo), The Sound of Music, Follies (Young Heidi), and Titanic with The Montclair Operetta Club; Summer Stock with The Skyline Theatre Company; The Secret Garden (Alice) and Seussical with The Theater Company; The Light in the Piazza with The Battery Factory Theatre. Danielle graduated from Arcadia University with a BFA in Acting and a minor in Music. Much love and thanks to her family and friends for their endless support!

James Ryan Sloan (Charlie Fox) has appeared in a number NY productions, including Night of the Iguana (opposite Alec Baldwin), A New York City Christmas (opposite Raul Esparza), The Yale Diaries, Showtune: The Music of Jerry Herman. His regional favorites include I Love a Piano, Company, Ragtime (with the Montclair Operetta Club), The Life (with 4th Wall), All My Sons, Kiss of the Spiderwoman, and Camino Real. He would like to thank his uber-talented castmates for letting him say such horrible things to them (even if they're true). Mikey, thank you for buying a coffee cup. Trey, thank you for also buying a coff... oh, wait...Pfft. Betty, thanks for making the coffee that went in said cup, and for everything else. Lindsey and Summit Company, thank you for treating this three person show better than most companies treat productions ten times the size. But seriously, Trey, a pleasure as always and thank you. STAFF

Trey Compton (Director) is long time admirer of David Mamet's work, and is thrilled to be working on this piece for the Summit Playhouse. Most recently, Trey directed and choreographed the Philadelphia premiere of Parade for The University of Pennsylvania. Last spring, he was Bob Cline's Assistant Director on White's Lies Off-Broadway at New World Stages starring Betty Buckley, Peter Scolari and Tuc Watkins. Last winter, he was the Assistant Director to Igor Goldin and Fight Director on Yank! Off-Broadway at the York Theater (Drama Desk Nomination: Best Musical, Best Director; Callaway Award Nominee for Excellence in Direction). Directing credits include both City of Angels and the New York premiere of Christopher Durang's Mrs. Bob Cratchit's Wild Christmas Binge for The Gallery Players in Brooklyn, Company (and choreography), John and Jen, He Gave Her The Eye, Joseph and the... (and choreography), Romeo and Juliet (and fights), and The Last Five Years. Selected Assistant and Associate credits include Warm, Cocktails with Coward, Funny Girl, The Language of Angels, Little Shop of Horrors, and a staged reading of White's Lies starring Elaine Stritch. As a performer, most notably PBS Live at Lincoln Center's Emmy Award winning production of Stephen Sondheim's Passion starring Patti LuPone, Audra McDonald and Michael Cerveris, among other credits. He holds a BFA from Pace University. Trey will be directing and choreographing Dirty Rotten Scoundrels for Stevens Institute of Technology in Hoboken this spring. Many thanks to Robert, James, Danielle, the production team and crew. Special thanks to Mikey LoBalsamo for his support, time and constant humor. Love to Lara. www.trey-comptononline.com for more.

Lindsey Nazelli (Producer) began her acting career as a wee lass right here in Summit performing in shows with the Metropolitan Musical Theater & Overlook Musical Theater. At fifteen years old, she began her professional career appearing in numerous commercials, voice-overs, jingles, soap operas, concerts, and theater. She is proud to have been in Andrew Lloyd Webber's Aspects of Love where she was the Swing & Jenny cover. She also performed the show at the Chicago Lyric Opera house. Lindsey was also in the original cast of Sunset Blvd appearing as Lisa/Doctor & Betty Schaefer at the Ford Center in Toronto. In New York, Lindsey has appeared in the revival of Two by Two (Goldie), Bare Bones (Josephine), Dracula (Lucy) and Club Temptation (Chris). Her regional credits include Les Liaisons Dangereuses (Cecile), You're a Good Man Charlie Brown (Lucy) and One Act Festival at The Theatre Project. Most recently, Lindsey has performed roles in local theaters of New Jersey: in productions of Company (Kathy) at the Montclair Operetta Club, and right here in Summit in the productions of Baby, as Arlene, and in Murder in Green Meadows as Joan. Lindsey thanks the Summit Playhouse Board for their support & encouragement, as well as her fantastic production team and volunteers who have worked tirelessly alongside her. Finally, she thanks her wonderful daughters & husband Tom — for putting up with it all!!!!

Diane Lotti (Stage Manager) is a proud member of the Board at the Summit Playhouse and is thrilled to be working on another wonderful production with such a talented cast and crew. Since finding a home at the Playhouse, she has assisted with costumes of The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie, has been stage manager for Murder in Green Meadows and has helped produce The Late Christopher Bean, and is fulfilling a long-time dream to work in the theater!

Dr. Carol Goodman, RID CI/CT (Sign Language Interpreter) is a nationally renowned ASL-English Interpreter and former teacher of the Deaf. Currently she is the Coordinator of the undergraduate program in Speech and Hearing Sciences at Kean University. Dr. Goodman has been with Summit Playhouse since we broadened our offerings to audience members with special needs. She enjoys interpreting our performances as much as the performers do performing them!

Ingrid Heil (Set Décor) has had a long career as an artist, a decorative painter, and an interior and exterior designer, here as well as in Germany and South Africa, and she is the owner of INGRIDABLE DESIGN, a decorative and real estate staging company. This is her third production at the Summit Playhouse, and she is thrilled to be working with Trey Compton and Lindsey Nazelli. She enjoys the experience and the unique challenges of set design and hopes to be involved with many more productions.

Ann Lowe (Costumes) is thrilled to be returning to the Playhouse as Costume Designer for Speed-The- Plow. She previously worked on their production of The Late Christopher Bean. Ann's previous experience with Costume Design includes New Providence High School's musicals Guys and Dolls, Seussical, Kiss Me Kate, and Thoroughly Modern Millie and fall plays The Musical Comedy Murders of 1940 and The Love of Three Oranges. She is currently costuming Bye Bye Birdie for NPHS. Thanks to her husband Matt for supporting her efforts at every turn.

J. Guerdon Mayfield (Set Construction) is now in his sixth season with the Playhouse. He got his start in theatre work thanks to his daughter Nancy who is currently on the staff of the Englert Theatre in Iowa City. He is active with Deaf/HOH organizations and is working to establish programs so they can enjoy live theatre also. Theatre makes for a wonderful retirement hobby and he invites all interested people to join him and the rest of the Playhouse in presenting wonderful shows. Special thanks to all the people who assisted in the construction of the set.

Bill Roome (Lighting & Sound) was last seen on-stage as the elusive butler, Bentley, in our production of The Constant Wife. Off-stage, he has designed sound and/or lighting for many of our recent shows, and he is the Playhouse's Technical Director and Webmaster. Off-off-stage, he lives in Berkeley Heights, where he is owned by several cats.

Rhoda Roper (Set Design & Painting) has designed for the Playhouse for nearly twenty years, beginning with Foxfire in 1992 and including last year's Murder In Green Meadows. She has also designed for The Bronx Opera Company, The Bickford Theater, Savory Singers G & S Company and other theaters around the area.

The cigarettes used in this production are electronic.

They do not use live flame, and they produce water vapor, not tobacco smoke.
